[illegible]he above rules, established Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, [illegible] which have done so much [illegible]ecure the reputation of this [illegible]stitute, are still adhered to, [illegible]rding those in need of [illegible]ical aid, the certainty of [illegible] and the utmost confidence. [illegible] is nothing of so great [illegible]ortance to the sick as to [illegible]w where to find a physi[illegible] whose skill and humanity [illegible] assurance of proper and [illegible]cate treatment. The Doc[illegible] would respectfully call the [illegible] of those of both sexes [illegible] suffering or in trouble [illegible] the invariable success that [illegible] marked the career of the [illegible] in the seventeen years [illegible] existence.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, Saturday Aug 1 1868

CLOSE OF THE SESSION

A great deal of business was crowded through both houses of Congress during the closing hours of the session. The Senate remained in session from ten o'clock Saturday morning till two Sunday morning, from 7½ Sunday evening till 2 Monday morning, and again after a brief recess from 9½ till 12 o'clock, Monday, the hour of adjournment. Most of the time was devoted to the consideration of executive business. The House remained in session till a late hour Saturday night and met early Monday morning but did not sit during Sunday. In the Senate the vote on the bill to protect American citizens in foreign States—which is properly Senator Williams' bill as his amendments constitute its chief provisions—was 9 to 5, Ferry, Fessenden, Fowler, Howard and Van Winkle voting in the negative. The bill as amended in the Senate, and agreed to by the Conference Committee, passed the House without a division. The bill providing for discontinuing the Freedmen's Bureau, after the first of January next, was vetoed by the President. The Senate passed the bill over the veto—42 to 5—a party vote, and the House passed it by a vote of 115 to 23. So the bill has become a law, and the Freedmen's Bureau will be discontinued, notwithstanding the objections of Andrew Johnson and the Democrats in Congress. The Democrats demand the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau but when the bill is passed their President vetoes it and every Democrat in Congress votes against it. And still they will continue, no doubt, to denounce the Radical party, through all their newspapers, and in every grog shop and village postoffice, from Maine to Oregon, for spending the people's money to keep up a Freedmen's Bureau to feed a set of lazy niggers." They asked through a Democratic President and his Cabinet for an appropriation of $372,000,000 to be expended during the current fiscal year, and the "Radical Congress" only appropriated $290,000,000—or $82,000,000 less than they asked for; yet these same Democrats will continue to talk loud and long about economy and to denounce "Radical extravagance." The Alabama Senators—Messrs Spencer and Warner—were sworn in, and J. W. Clift, C. H. Prince, W. P. Edwards, and S. F. Gove, members from the same State were admitted in the House. The report of the Conference Committee on the funding bill was agreed to by the Senate and House and so the bill was passed. The bill provides for funding the five twenty six per cent bonds in thirty and forty year bonds principal and interest payable in coin, and to be exempt from all State taxation, and from all Federal taxation except income tax—the bonds falling due in thirty years to bear four and a half per cent, interest, and those due in forty years four per cent. During the session of the Senate on Sunday night Senator Henderson made a violent personal attack on General Butler for the part he took in the investigation concerning the corruption of certain Senators during the impeachment trial. The report of the committee implicated Henderson, and hence he took occasion to vent his rage on Butler who took the leading part in the investigation. Butler replied in the House on Monday morning, just before the close of the session. At precisely 12 o'clock, Monday, the 27th inst., both houses adjourned, or, took a recess, as they chose to regard it, till the 21st of September next. The House was voting on the bill to increase the tariff on copper, by yeas and nays, and the Clerk was calling the roll, when the Speaker's hammer fell and announced the close of the session in the midst of the voting. The members agreed not to return in September, unless notified that the interests of the country demand it, by E. D. Morgan, of New York, chairman of the Congressional Republican Committee, or Robert C. Schenck, of Ohio chairman of the Republican Congressional Executive Committee, said notice to be given on or before the 16th of September. There will be no session in September, unless Andrew Johnson, by some new violation of law makes it necessary as he did last summer.

NOMINATIONS, CONFIRMATIONS AND REJECTIONS

During the last hours of the session of the Senate, the President made a great many nominations of which the following may be of interest to the people of the Pacific coast: Wm. J. Cullen, to be Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Idaho and Montana, A. S. Paddock, of Nebraska, to be Governor of the new Territory of Wyoming, and Omar F. Roberts of Indiana to be Secretary of Wyoming; Gen. Wm. S. Rosecrans was nominated to be Minister to Mexico, A. M. Cummings Commissioner of Internal Revenue, S. M. Johnson, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Charles O. Wilson, of Ill., to be Chief Justice of Utah. Among those confirmed by the Senate were Elisha Foote, father in law of Senator Henderson (the price of one vote against conviction in the impeachment trial) to be Commissioner of Patents; C. C. Cox, Commissioner of Pensions; H. W. Watts, Minister to Austria, Samuel Milligan Judge of the Court of Claims; J. M. Clark, of Ill., Surveyor General of Utah, Lewis S. Hill Receiver of Land Office in Utah, T. O. Libball Collector of Internal Revenue, 2d district of California; Charles C. Wilson, of Ill. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah; J. S. Spalding of Ohio, Consul at Honolulu; James Merr Collector of Internal Revenue Montana, J. H. Ashton Assistant Attorney General of the United States, H. Smith, Deputy Postmaster, San Francisco; Gen. Wm. S. Rosecrans to be Minister to Mexico; Chas. H. Felton, Treasurer of the Branch Mint at San Francisco, T. L. Dickey, Assistant Attorney General (making two Assistant Attorney Generals), E. D. Hoge, Associate Justice for the Supreme Court of Utah; J. F. Shelley, of Tenn., Indian Agent for New Mexico, B. C. Cutler, of New Mexico, Surveyor General of New Mexico; H. G. Worthington, of Nevada Minister to Uruguay; James White, of Tenn., Consul for Matamoras; F. A. Perkins, of Conn., Consul for Tahiti. The Senate rejected J. L. Dawson to be Minister to Russia, J. A. McClernand Minister to Mexico, F. O. Perrin Chief Justice of Utah, S. M. Johnson, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, S. P. McCurdy, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah.

A NEW TERRITORY

Before adjournment the bill to organize the new Territory of Wyoming passed both houses of Congress and a Governor and Secretary were appointed and confirmed by the Senate. So "Wyoming" no longer signifies a "large plain," but one of the organized Territories of the United States, soon to be added to the family of States.

THE CHINESE TREATY

The Senate ratified the Chinese treaty, of which I sent a full synopsis and also a full copy to the OREGONIAN when it was first made public. Some important amendments to the treaty were made in the Senate.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY

The Chinese Legation left here last Wednesday evening for New York, where they will stay a day or two and then visit the residence of Secretary Seward at Auburn. They will there be entertained by Mr. Seward and Attorney General Evarts. From Auburn they will proceed to Niagara Falls and then to Boston and remain in that city till their departure for Europe on the 15th of this month.

THE SANDWICH ISLANDS TREATY

The Reciprocity treaty between the United States and the Sandwich Islands was taken up in the Senate a second time just before adjournment. Fessenden made another speech against it, and Sumner again spoke ably and eloquently in its favor. It was finally laid on the table, which disposed of until the next session of Congress. If there be no session in September, it will perhaps fail, unless the time for its ratification should be extended. The treaty was entered into at San Francisco on the 21st of May, 1867, and stipulates that it shall be ratified within 18 months thereafter, so the time will expire November 21, 1868.

BILLS WHICH FAILED FOR WANT OF TIME

The principal measures which failed to pass Congress were the tariff bill, the bill for the reduction of the army and the bill creating provisional governments in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas.

THE SOUTHERN STATES

The President has ordered the Secretary of War to relieve all the military commanders in each of the Southern States lately admitted to representation in Congress. He will also withdraw all the troops from those States and the military bill having failed to pass Congress the loyal people of the South will be without arms and entirely at the mercy of the rebels, who are nearly all armed to the teeth. It is said that in this way Johnson and his Copperhead allies will make a vigorous effort to carry the Southern States for Seymour and Blair.

MINISTER JOHNSON

Reverdy Johnson the new American Minister to Great Britain, accompanied by Mrs. Lincoln, leaves to-day on the Baltimore, Southampton and Bremen steamer.

THE BALTIMORE SUFFERERS

The city government of Baltimore has appropriated $250,000 for the benefit of the sufferers by the great flood, and subscriptions are being taken up in Philadelphia, New York and other places to be applied to the same object.

STATE ELECTIONS.

The State elections which are yet to occur this year are as follows: Kentucky, August 3; Tennessee, August 13; Vermont, September 1; California, September 8; Maine, September 14; Nebraska, October 6; Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Iowa, October 13; West Virginia, October 22; New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, Nevada and Massachusetts, November 3—the day of the Presidential election.

ALASKA

After so much delay the last act in the Alaska purchase has been performed by our Government. To-day a draft was signed at the State Department for $7,200,000 for the payment of the purchase money. The draft was delivered to the Russian Minister, and the proper papers in return were exchanged.

TREATIES

The Senate, during the last hours of the session ratified three treaties with Mexico. One relates to Consuls and their duties, another provides for a joint commission to settle claims between citizens of the two Republics, the third establishes the right of citizenship and expatriation. A treaty was also ratified with Russia to protect rights in trade marks.

THE FUNDING BILL.

It was reported when Congress adjourned that the President had the funding bill under consideration, and had not determined whether he would sign it or not. But one of Mr. Johnson's private secretaries, who is the regular correspondent of a leading Democratic paper (receiving $2,000 per year from the Government, and about the same amount from the aforesaid paper, for no other service than to give the President's views to the public, and keep politicians posted in regard to what is going on at the White House) writes that the President positively refused to sign the funding bill when it was presented to him, before Congress adjourned on Monday last. The Copperheads have been howling about the high rate of interest, and yet when a bill is passed to provide for reducing it, they oppose it, and their President refuses to sign it, the same as they clamored for economy, and then asked for $82,000,000 to be expended the present year, more than the "radical Congress" would appropriate, and demanded the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau, and then voted against, and vetoed the bill which the "radical Congress" passed to discontinue the Bureau.

A BRIGHT RECORD.

The Fortieth Congress has, so far, left a bright record on the page of history. It commenced its session on the 4th and closed it on the 20th of March, 1867, and held an extra session, commencing on the 3d, and closing on the 19th, of July following. The session just closed commenced on the 21st of November, 1867, and continued till the 27th of July, 1868, eight months and seven days. During that long and tedious session it was work, work, all the time. A great deal of hard labor was performed, much of the time both houses holding night and day. Two hundred and two acts were passed—many of them of great importance. It is admitted on all hands that the session which has just closed has been one of the most important that ever convened. Economy has been its motto in all things. Even the New York Tribune, which grumbles perpetually about extravagance, and was scarcely ever known to favor an appropriation for any enterprise, no matter how worthy, is forced to confess that the 40th Congress has been an exception to the general rule. Its Washington correspondence of last Monday says:

"It can be said with truth that fewer swindling schemes, taking money out of the Public Treasury, have been passed during the last legislative months than at any time since the growth of the Government to its present gigantic proportions. The session just closed has kept the whiteness of its soul unstained. Its hands are clean. The lobby has met with a signal and crushing defeat. 'Jobs' have been slaughtered by the score, and men who in other years have made 'handsome things' during a session of Congress, go hence to night and to morrow in positive desperation, not having realized even the amount of their hotel bills."

PERSONAL.

Senator Williams and his accomplished lady, left Washington last Saturday night, for Oregon, by way of Panama and San Francisco. Judge Williams goes to Oregon to participate in the great Presidential campaign, now engaging the attention of the American people, and will throw the full influence of his voice and talent in favor of Grant and Colfax, the next President and Vice President of the United States. I am not aware of a single instance in the history of our Government, where a man in so short a time has won so high a position and gained so much influence in the Senate of the United States, as has been achieved by George H. Williams, and I trust that the people of Oregon especially of Portland, will give him such a welcome as he deserves. Mr. Mallory and family left here last Thursday night, for Andover, N. Y., where they will remain during the summer.

DEMOCRATIC PLEASANTRIES.—Since the nomination of the great mob leader Seymour and the avowed revolutionist Blair, the Copperheads are beginning to crawl out of their holes and air themselves as they did of old, before sandpacking and a term of service on the Dry Tortugas were adopted as suitable punishments for their daily malice against the loyal servants of the country. One of their newspaper oracles is quoted by the New York Tribune as having recently eulogized J. Wilkes Booth at the expense of Lincoln and the cause in which he was martyred, in the following style:

"Some few years after these stirring events, John Wilkes Booth, a young man of generous impulses, fine attainments, manly sentiments and noble aspirations, 'whose gentle manners won your heart,' stung to the quick by the sight of his country's wrongs and injuries conceived the bold idea of freeing that country from the iron rule, and in obedience to the promptings of a patriotic heart, shot the foul usurper dead."

HYDROPHOBIA CURED BY SALIVATION.—A new remedy for this most distressing of maladies comes from northern India, and is attested by the medical officer at the Hooshiarpor Charitable Dispensary. "The patient on admission was suffering from violent and frequent attacks. He was tied to a chair, surrounded with blankets leaving the head free, a large vessel of boiling water was placed under him and a mixture of equal parts of mercury and sulphur well rubbed together, were placed in a broken piece of chatty over a charcoal fire and put alongside of the vessel of boiling water, fifteen grains of calomel were given at once and five grains repeated every hour, the mercurial vapor bath being kept up till all symptoms subsided. In about four hours the man was perfectly calm and free from bad symptoms; he was removed from the chair and placed on a bed. The after treatment was simply tonics, nourishing food and gargles, to remove salivation. On the 18th he was discharged—cured."

THE BAVARIAN TREATY.—The following is a free translation from the German of the text of the naturalization treaty recently concluded between Bavaria and the United States:

ARTICLE 1. Subjects of the Kingdom of Bavaria who have become naturalized citizens of the United States of North America, and have uninterruptedly lived during five years in the United States, are to be considered as American citizens and accordingly treated by Bavaria. DEMOCRATIC FIGURES COWED.—[illegible] Y. World names the following [illegible] sumed by delegates to the Con[illegible] for Seymour and Blair.

Connecticut 6, New York 33, [illegible] Pennsylvania 26, Ohio 21, Indiana 13, [illegible] 3, Nevada 3, California 5, D[illegible] tucky 11, Missouri 11, Ka[illegible] 3, W[illegible] 8, Maryland 7. Total 160.

The Virginia Trespass says it has no hesitation in saying that Nevada is positively certain for Grant. We say it is positively certain that Grant will carry C[illegible]. The Democrats [illegible] claim [illegible] and will [illegible] as they did in the [illegible] every State in the Union going [illegible] Grant will not be disappointed in the [illegible] He is just as much now the C[illegible] Chief of the Union as he [illegible] when fighting armed Democrats on the rebel battle-fields. We think the [illegible] States are ours, Seymour may have the remainder.—Sacramento Record.

Henry Ward Beecher preached a powerful sermon recently on the text "Thou shalt not steal." In the course of his remarks he attacked the Pendleton proposition, which the Copperhead party has since deliberately adopted as the main plank in its platform, with his sharpest rhetoric. He said:

I regard the refusal to pay the bonds of these United States in gold or silver as being, in every disguise and under every possible idea, an atrocious theft, and I pronounce that man, either by mistake or intentionally, a thief who does it, or attempts to procure the doing of it. It is an attempt to make this Nation a vast thieving body. [Applause.] It is not an accusation that can be laid against one party or the other. There are thieves in both parties that are clamoring for this national repudiation. This is a crime that I think would not have its parallel among knaves. It takes a sort of man smirched with patriotism and varnished with piety to do the wickedest thing. [Sensation.] A pickpocket would not steal the medicine away from a physician who was healing his own mother. But while men in the hour of the nation's extremity and peril lent their aid, it is now proposed that we shall pick their pockets and steal from them. It is a thing for which there is no title monstrous enough. It is a thing that every man who has a conscience or a particle of honor ought to hiss at and spew at. It is a shame to the Church—that is so loud against dancing and card playing—has not a word to say against national robbery, national dishonor, and national dishonesty.

Is it Nothing Against Him?

The Herald affects to think that the various publications of historical facts concerning the course pursued by Horatio Seymour, during the rebellion, are rather creditable to him than otherwise and that the people will not weigh them as objections. Had the conduct of Governor Seymour been ten times more strongly than it was, in sympathy with the rebellion, it would have been all the same with such men as the editor of the Herald. Had Gen. Lee, or even Wade Hampton, been the nominee of the Democratic Convention, his rebellion record would have been cited as creditable, and his "personal character" would have been lauded as of the purest type. But is it nothing really against Seymour that when Gen. Lee's army was on the soil of Pennsylvania striving with desperate energy and determination to permanently transfer the horrors of war to the Northern States, he was deaf to the appeals of Meade's noble army for help, and that instead of uttering stirring, patriotic words to rouse the people to arms, he was making a deliberately studied speech in New York to prove the uselessness of further effort to put down the rebellion? Is it nothing against him that, on the very day when the glorious shouts of Union triumph began to ring out from Gettysburg and [illegible] to widen and swell with volume [illegible] till they were sounded upon every hill top and re-echoed from every valley of the loyal North, Horatio Seymour was [illegible] to a New York multitude [illegible] the only [illegible] hope of an adjustment of the war troubles lay in a cessation of hostilities [illegible] to a dissolution of the [illegible] and reorganization upon rebel terms, [illegible] institution of slavery [illegible] His speech on the 4th of July, [illegible] to that and [illegible] After [illegible] how he and his [illegible] had sought to avoid the [illegible] in the [illegible] out, of its incipiency, [illegible] how they had repeatedly ad[illegible] the Democratic party [illegible] to array itself against [illegible] and the dominant party; [illegible] the Administration as [illegible] and liberties; how the [illegible] by wordy [illegible] on to say:

Is it nothing [illegible] him that he pledged them as the [illegible] of New York, that he would see to [illegible] would be suspended and [illegible] Is it nothing against him that he [illegible] arrayed himself with [illegible] the government? Is [illegible] him that when the mob [illegible] the threat [illegible] a few days [illegible] and assured [illegible] that he was their friend, [illegible] that they were his [illegible] there to show [illegible] of his friendship? Is it nothing against him that, under his [illegible] of [illegible] the mob went on again with [illegible] and burnings and fiendish outrages, while Gov. Seymour kept "hands off," [illegible] maintaining his attitude of diplomatic [illegible] to the government? Is it nothing against him that his opposition to the administration and the war was so [illegible] to the rebels that when they received the news of his election as Governor, enthusiastic cheers went up from the rebel lines in front of and within hearing of our armies? Is it nothing against him that he joined with the rebel sympathizers, at Chicago, in 1864, in denouncing the war, and declaring it a failure, [illegible] in the hour when decisive and final victory was beginning to perch upon our banners, by land and sea? Is it nothing against him that now he is the candidate of a party which has declared for repudiation, and for another revolution to unseat the men in power whom the Union armies fought for four years?

These political crimes may be nothing in the estimation of Democratic editors and orators; on the contrary, we naturally expect such people to applaud him for their commission; and their applause would be the louder and heartier had his crimes been greater and more numerous. But the judgment of every patriot and lover of his country, justice, humanity and peace, must be that the publicly committed political crimes of Horatio Seymour render him unfit to be President of the United States.

The Democrats object to Gen. Grant because he used to be a tanner and a wood-chopper. They have constitutional objections to his mode of tanning rebel hides, and a holy horror of the way he chipped their Confederacy into kindling wood.

The San Francisco Bulletin has an article concerning the approaching State Fair, under the head, "The Agricultural Horse Trot." Suggestive and severe.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

We clip the following items from the Olympia Transcript of the 15th:

It is rumored that the small-pox is prevailing among the Indians on the Tulalip Reservation.

The Hawaiian ship Margaret Branson went on the beach at Port Gamble, last week, to clean her bottom, and started her floor timbers. She has gone to Victoria, we presume, to be sold.

We understand that the people of Tumwater, owing to the scarcity of newspapers published in Washington Territory, have held a public meeting and resolved to publish an independent paper of their own.

We learn that Secretary Smith paid a number of Legislative orders for the services of members of last session, this week. No other bills, except one thousand dollars to the printer, Chas. Prosch, were paid.

Most of the farmers in this county have secured their hay crop, and are now engaged harvesting their grain. These crops are all splendid and are being secured in the best of condition, as they are in all parts of the Territory.

The prospectus for the Temperance Echo, an organ of the Good Templars, is being circulated for subscribers. It is to be issued weekly, controlled by a committee appointed for that purpose, and published by our mysterious friend, R. H. Hewitt, Esq.

The Int says inform us that the potatoe crop on the uplands has bad prospects. The dry weather has stopped the growth of them, so that they are nearly all fit to dig. They are small in size, and generally have a bad spot in the centre, some being too decayed for use.

A gentleman who has just arrived from Seabeck gives us the following intelligence, from that vicinity: The Washington Mill Company are turning out more lumber than ever before, running the mill night and day. The Jenny Pitts, Carlotta, and another bark, were in port loading. Everything was very lively, money plenty, everybody employed, and more men wanted for the mill and logging camps. The company were paying an advance to the loggers on the contract price for logs, and was towing their rafts free of charge. Many of the camps have increased their force of hands, and are in want of more work cattle. Our friend is seeking cattle, and will visit the Chehalis valley for that purpose, and perhaps Oregon. He informs us that about two-thirds of the distance of the way to Seabeck, about one hundred and ten miles, by trail, the fires are raging through the woods and doing an immense amount of damage to some of the best timber in the Territory, as it kills, dries and cracks the trees so that they are unfit for spars or lumber. The trail is getting badly filled up with trees felled by wind-falls and fires, so that in places the trail has to be left for a quarter of a mile at a stretch.

IDAHO.

From the Boise Statesman of the 15th, we get the following:

Our further election news from the several counties is unofficial, and a sufficient report has been given to show that the Democrats, by voting early and often, have carried the whole Territory with perhaps the exception of a few local county offices. We have had several conversations with parties from Boise county, who report Gray, for Sheriff, seventeen votes behind, and Taylor, as Assessor, six votes ahead, with a few precincts to hear from which may bring Gray out ahead. All this is, however, is reports and rumors. Who of these men are elected the official count only can determine. It is also reported that in several precincts the Union judge was overruled and the ballot-box carried around and trifled with. Several illegal votes are known to have been cast for the "straight Democratic ticket." What the final determination of the controversy will be we do not know, but the election of Sheriff and Assessor will be contested without doubt, no matter who has the small majorities. The contest was, financially speaking, conducted too largely on the make or break principle to overlook any fraud; both parties may have practiced it; if so it will undoubtedly be proven at the proper time. Among our reports we have one that gives Shafer 472 majority, and Britten 34 majority. The Assessorship is claimed by both parties. Another precinct report has the following on the Sheriffalty: Placerville gave 7 majority for Britten; Shafer about 26; May none. Granite Creek gave 12 majority for Britten; Shafer, 45; May 10. Centerville, 17 majority for Gray. Boston 5 for Gray. Horse Shoe Bend gave 8 for Britten. Upper Payette gave 14 for Britten. From Alturas, Oneida and the northern counties we have no returns. Owyhee county reports increase the Democratic majorities. In our next issue we hope to be able to furnish the complete returns from Ada, Boise and Owyhee counties.

We learn from a passenger from Rocky Bar, Alturas county, that the Democrats have carried the county ticket by a small majority, except N. L. Clark, Union, for Sheriff, is supposed to be elected by two majority.

The estate of Thomas Hayes has been appraised at $190,000.

Several days ago McDonald & Whitney were paid a $6,000 check by a broker in this city. Upon presentation it was found that the drawer had no money in the bank and that he had left in the meantime. Detectives overhauled him in Marin county and recovered $4,000 of the amount.

It is stated that the enemies of Mr. Axtell, within the Democratic party, are circulating a letter for signature requesting him to withdraw or threatening to place a third candidate in the field in case he refuses.

The city and county attorney has filed answers in the case of suits for damages to newspapers offices which were made in April, 1865. The following are the damages claimed by plaintiffs: J. Nunan, $13,000; E. Derbec, $50,000; J. B. Chamon, $25,000; Montgomery & Flavin, $18,862; F. Marriatt, $19,897; T. A. Brady, $13,499. Total, $139,458. Defendant offers to confess judgment for the following amounts: Nunan, $500; Derbec, $2,600; Chamon, $2,500; Marriatt, $5,000; Brady, $2,600. Total, $13,000. Repudiates Montgomery & Flavin's claim entirely.

A man residing on Mission street recently received $3,000 in trust for a friend at Milpitas. He reported the money to have been stolen by burglars. The detectives found it buried in the man's own woodshed.

The improvement noted in mining shares continues.

FROM THE NORTH.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 19.—Barnard's express arrived down yesterday, bringing ninety thousand dollars in bank treasure. Great excitement has been created by the discovery of a large prospect on Peterson creek, situated about 18 miles west of Barkerville. It was discovered by a man named Kennedy, and from the quantity of gold already taken out it bids fair to rival Williams' Creek in richness. The news from Williams' Creek is rather unfavorable in consequence of scarcity of water. On Grouse Creek the flume company continues paying fairly.

PROGRESS OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Winnemucca (Nevada) Argent, of August 6th, says:

By Saturday next, at farthest, the grading of the railroad will be completed to and above Winnemucca 12 miles—as far as Fairbanks'. Gangs of graders have been passing up the river every day of the past ten, until few remain below. A party of 50 are at work in Emigrant Canyon, 20 miles above this burg. This canyon is three miles long and has several pretty heavy rocky points to be cut through—one 30 feet deep of blasting. From this canyon to Five Mile Canyon, several miles above Gravelly Ford, the work will be even lighter than below, and straight runs of ten miles or more will frequently be made. As an instance of how fast the work is doing, one gang of 40 men graded a mile of road below here in three days. There is one party of culvert builders at work as far east as the ford, and another en route for a point beyond.

The iron is spiked down as far east as Brown's 30 miles below Oreana, and will be completed to the latter point next week, when a passenger car will perhaps run through. Want of iron has delayed track-laying several days.

The Citizenship Bill.

The following is a copy of the bill to protect American citizens in foreign States, as it finally passed both Houses of Congress. It passed the House several weeks before the Senate, and gave rise to a great deal of debate in both Houses. The third section was offered as a substitute by Senator Williams for the main provisions of the House bill, and was adopted by the Senate. The bill was then referred to a Conference Committee, after which it passed the Senate—39 to 5—and the House without a division:

WHEREAS, The expatriation is a natural and inherent right of all people, indispensable to the enjoyment of the rights and liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; and whereas in its recognition of this principle, this Government has freely received emigrants from all nations, and vested them the rights of citizenship; and whereas it is claimed that such American citizens, with their descendants, are subjects of foreign States, owing allegiance to the governments thereof; and whereas it is necessary to the maintenance of public peace that the claim of foreign allegiance shall be promptly and finally disavowed; therefore,

Be it enacted &c., That any declaration, instruction, opinion, or decision of any officer of this Government, which denies, restricts, impairs, or questions the right of expatriation is hereby declared inconsistent with the fundamental principles of this Government.

SEC. 2. That all naturalized citizens of the United States, while in foreign States, shall be entitled to and shall receive from this Government the same protection of person and property that is accorded to native born citizens in like situations and circumstances.

SEC. 3. That whenever it shall be known to the President that any citizen of the United States has been unjustly deprived of liberty by or under the authority of a foreign Government, it shall be the duty of the President forthwith to demand of that Government the reasons for such imprisonment; and if it appears to be unlawful and in violation of the rights of American citizenship, the President shall forthwith demand the release of such person; and if the release so demanded is unreasonably delayed or refused, it shall be the duty of the President to use such means, not amounting to acts of war, as he may think necessary and proper to obtain and effect such release, and all the facts and proceedings relative thereto shall, as soon as possible, be communicated by the President to Congress.

Liverpool has a good local story of a tiger which escaped from a menagerie and terrified the suburbs for some hours. In one outlying district a man who had "lost the use of both legs" had sat for twenty years, a sturdy, stunted vagrant, making a good thing out of his infirmity. But in an evil hour for his professional profits the road where he had taken up his seat for a score of years was on the morning of the tiger's escape the scene of a fierce stampede. Down it poured pell mell; men, women and children at full speed, screaming with terror, and crying out, "The tiger, the tiger!" The cripple had heard the news of the tiger's escape, and now fear lent him legs, or restored his old limbs; he started up, threw away the big bowl on which he had sat doubled up every day, and with an energy that left nothing to be desired, he bounded down the road and soon outstripped all competitors. The tiger was caught, but the "cripple" was never seen again, at least in that neighborhood.

THE SECRET OF ELOQUENCE.—I owe my success in life to one single fact, viz: That at the age of twenty seven I commenced, and continued for years, the process of reading and speaking upon the contents of some historical and scientific book. These off hand efforts were made sometimes in a corn field, at others in a forest, and not unfrequently in some distant barn, with the horse and ox for my auditors. It is to this early practice, in the great art of all arts, that I am indebted for the primary and leading impulses that stimulated me forward, and shaped and modeled my entire subsequent destiny. Improve, then, young gentlemen, the superior advantages you enjoy. Let not a day pass without exercising your powers of speech. There is no power like that of oratory. Cæsar controlled men by captivating their affections and swaying their passions. The influence of the one perished with its author, but that of the other continues to-day.—Henry Clay.

MRS. GEN. HOOKER.—Of this lady, lately deceased, the correspondent of the S. F. Bulletin, says:

"Mrs. Gen. Hooker, nee Miss Groesbeck, of Cincinnati, was one of the handsomest and most elegant women of the West, though a native of New York, and for several years was the belle of Saratoga and Newport, where, as well as at Paris and several other European capitals, she was distinguished no less for her beauty than her thorough breeding and brilliant conversation. She was exceedingly accomplished, and was for various seasons a reigning belle in Washington.

The New Yorkers say that the nomination of Blair was the death blow; the Western men say that Seymour on a Pendleton platform was fatal; Chase men declare that Copperheadism needs another defeat before it will learn to keep quiet; and Democrats everywhere feel that once more they have insured a Republican victory by their own stupidity.

The Marysville Appeal says: "We hear that C. A. Dudley, son of A. P. Dudley, who has renounced modern Democracy, will also take the stump for Grant and Colfax. Young Dudley lately graduated at the Oakland College."

While Colonel Blair's regiment was fighting the battle of Wilson's Creek, where Gen Lyon fell, the Colonel himself was electioneering in Washington for the Speakership of the House.

Torture.—Who would endure the torture arising from Chills and Fever when it can be easily cured?

Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fever and icy chills alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a trifle!

Who would wander like an uncertain shadow, never knowing what moment they may be prostrated!

Who would be a burden to himself and a burden to his friends, who are worn out in administering to his wants!

Who would live this life of agony when the great alterative and tonic,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

can be obtained at the nearest village? This long established and justly renowned medicine has never been known to fail in a single case, and none but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure it at once, and save themselves from intense, life long torture. Prepared after a long experience and deep study, it has received the encomiums of the most eminent physicians, as well as all classes from every part of the country. To those who doubt its many virtues, all we can say is, try it, and judge for yourselves.

Every day letters pour in upon us, testifying to its great efficacy in curing Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Languor, Nausea and similar ills.

Great Expectations!

Are frequently formed of certain remedies, but disappointment often is the result. Such cannot be said of that now universally used Cordial and Tonic,

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which has attained a reputation that leaves far and away behind all other preparations. Its wonderful tonic properties, its delicious taste, its powerful restorative powers, all combine to stamp it as the ne plus ultra of Bitters. Possibly it inspired Timothy Titcomb to write his poem of

"BITTER SWEET."

Every one afflicted with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Headache, General Debility, or Stomach Affections, may rely on it as a pleasant and sure cure. Sold all the world over.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—The Grand Lodge of the Order of Good Templars will meet at Albany, Linn county, on [illegible] the 1st day of September. G. W. C. T. Beal who has just returned from the East, where he attended [illegible] session of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, requests [illegible] to state that a full representation of all subordinate [illegible] in the jurisdiction is especially desired, as more [illegible] questions will arise at the approaching session than at any previous time in the history of the Order in Oregon.

ARRIVED.—The bark Live Yankee, from San Francisco, arrived yesterday afternoon in tow of the John H. Couch. She brings a large cargo of assorted merchandise, a manifest of which will be found elsewhere, and which she is [illegible] ing at Abernethy's wharf, foot of Yamhill street.

LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY.—Any member of this Society [illegible] ing the services of a physician for the poor of Third Ward, may apply to Dr. Glisan, who, at the request of the ladies, kindly consents to serve gratuitously for the period of three months, from the 18th of August.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—By the river steamers of yesterday: 787 sacks flour, 1003 sacks oats, 65 sacks feed, 25 [illegible] apples, 5 pkgs furniture, 4 pkgs merchandise, 3 bales woolen goods, 1 stage coach.

STATE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—Yesterday morning we took a drive over the river to this institution, and were met by Mr. Kernworthy, the gentlemanly Superintendent, who conducted us through the several wards of the building which we found to be kept in a state of the most neatness. The beauty of the site, together with the conveniences and ornaments which have, from time to time, been added to the grounds and buildings, render it a spot of more than ordinary attractions, aside from the sad sights which greet one upon entering the several apartments, where decrepitude and helpless infancy, are barred in by grated windows, and who dwell in total mental darkness and anguish, unconscious in most cases of their own calamity, and of the warbling birds around, the blue sky above, or the kindness of the hands that furnish them with all the comforts which they, in their unfortunate situation, are capable of enjoying. For whatever may be said of the price which is paid by the State for its insane and idiotic, no one who visits the asylum, and converses with the kind hearted Superintendent will doubt that all is done which it is in his power to do, to alleviate and better the condition of those who are placed under his care.

ASSAULT IN OPEN COURT.—Yesterday morning while his Honor Recorder Hoffman was hearing the case of the City of Portland vs. Fernie, a prisoner who had lain in jail over night, was brought into Court and placed with in the bar to await his turn, for a hearing. While everything was progressing quietly, this man seemed suddenly to become terribly enraged about something and jumping up from his seat, beset the Recorder with a volley of abusive epithets and sending a glass partly filled with water, leveled it at the head of the Court and as the saying is, "fired away" with all his strength. Fortunately for Judge Hoffman the glass passed above the mark aimed at, a few inches, and made quite an indentation in the wall at the opposite side of the court room. The fellow was seized by the officers present and was overpowered before his Honor had time to a full appreciation of the situation. When matters became a little more quiet the Recorder gave the man a lecture upon the decorum necessary to be observed in the judicial tribunals of this county, and in order to give this individual an idea of the sanctity of the temple of justice which he had so grossly violated, sent him to jail for a few days to ponder over his unprovoked offense.

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LIST.—The following are the passenger and freight lists of the steamship Oriflamme, which sails from San Francisco, this morning at o'clock.

Passengers—Mrs. Hill, Rappleye and two children, Henry Ettling wife and child, J Matthews, M Hirsch, A Moore, S H Parish, H C Dodge, H C Coulson, E P Cranston and wife, John Powers, Mr Mayer, Chas Unfavage, T Lee, E Oppenheimer, A Sommers, J Thompson, D Moore and wife, D Williams and wife, E Fox, Mr Jacobs, S M Frank, E S Hastings, C C Pendergast, Geo L Berkmanier, J Graham, P S Knight, S Mulligan, W Johnson, J Kellogg, H C Benson, Bishop Scott, E S McClure, D D Williams, J A Dally, Mrs H C Victor, A Paul, Lt A B Kaufman, Mary Wilson, Mrs E Ramsdell, Mrs A Campbell, J Q Thorton, Mr E Ellis, J E Walker, J Harris, J O'Neil, Thos Cox, J R Lake and two children, and 27 in the steerage.

Cargo—1,792 hides, 218 cases bacon, 14½ bbls butter, 16 boxes butter, 41½ bbls apples, 4 cases cheese, 1,375 sks oats, 43 boxes eggs, 77 bales wool, 4 rolls leather, 26½ bbls salmon, 20 kits salmon, 18 ½bbls salmon, 1,000 salmon, 2 pkgs furs, 23 horses, 9 bbls beef, 11 cases mdse, 2 bales mdse, 3 pkgs mdse.

THE OSWEGO LAWSUIT.—The case entitled "The Oregon Iron Company vs. John C. Trullinger," was heard before Judge Upton, at Chambers, on last Monday. The decision of the Court is somewhat lengthy, and we have only room for an abstract, embodying the substance of the order made therein. The court held that Mr. Trullinger is the owner in fee of the water created by the flow and fall of the creek above a certain point, with the right to raise the water above his dam, when it can be done by the surplus water. All the water flowing in said creek, over 25 cubic feet per second, is surplus water. He is required at regular intervals, in each twenty four hours, as much water to flow over or through his dam as the natural flow of the creek, and whenever the water is raised or ponded in Sucker Lake so as to be more than five feet above the natural surface of said lake. Trullinger is hereby required to permit as much water so to flow in the course of each 24 hours as will be equal to 24 cubic feet per second for ten hours, and to use said water in a prudent manner, conducive to the mutual benefit of said Trullinger and plaintiff.

ABUSING CHINAMEN.—Whatever may be our opinions in regard to the policy of admitting the Chinamen into this country, we must say that we have never known one to insult or make an overt attack upon a white person without first receiving some provocation. As a general thing, they are altogether inclined to attend to their own business and let other people alone. The arrival of a great number of them lately, seems to be the pretext on the part of certain bad boys in Portland to heap every indignity upon them which depravity and cowardice can invent. It is not right for the authorities to allow this illtreatment to be so constantly exhibited toward this people, though they are heathen. We believe it would be perfectly right for any one who sees this unfeeling barbarity shown towards chinamen, to give his disapproval of it, in such a way as would cause these boys to remember it for a long time. The police have some of these offenders noted and will watch them pretty closely.

NEW BOOK.—Mr. F. R. Curtis has placed upon our table the advance sheets of a new work entitled "Exploration of the Nile, Tributaries of Abyssinia," written by Sir S. W. Baker. It is a volume of 608 pages, and will contain a description of the sources, supply and periodic overflow of the Nile, the country, climate, people, customs, etc., and accounts of thrilling adventures of the author among the elephants, rhinoceros, hippopotamus and other great game of that country. Added to this will be a history of the late terrible war in Abyssinia. Mr. Curtis will soon enter upon the work of canvassing the State for subscriptions to this interesting book. It is published by O. D. Case & Co., Hartford, and F. Delving & Co., San Francisco. Subscription price, $5.

DR. WYTHE.—We are requested to state that Rev. Dr. Wythe, the lately appointed pastor of the Methodist congregation in this city will preach in the basement of the new church, corner of Taylor and Third streets, on next Sunday morning and evening. Dr. W. is a learned and eloquent man, and we doubt not, will succeed in the work to which he has been appointed.

ORPHANS' AID SOCIETY.—To-day at 2 o'clock the ladies of the various Protestant congregations in this city, will meet in the basement of the new Methodist church to take some steps in aid of the State Orphan Asylum. We trust that there will be a full attendance, as it is necessary that immediate action be taken in the humane enterprise.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer John L. Stephens will sail from San Francisco for Portland, on next Saturday.

The New York Round Table, a paper of strong Democratic proclivities, says of Seymour's chances: "If our estimates are correct, Mr. Seymour as the case stands, has no chance at all. He would have nothing less, but possibly something more, in the event of the nomination of Mr. Chase by an independent Convention."

It is said that parties in San Francisco have offered the Government $1,000,000 for Goat Island—allowing the United States to retain ten acres for military purposes.

The new drama, Tangled Threads, is said to have been written for the Webb sisters.

EXTINGUISHER

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline, and combustible materials now in common use.

PRICE—No. 1, $50; No. 2, $55; No. 3, $60.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering through unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

A STORY WITH A MORAL.—Some time since a lady called upon a celebrated oculist in order to consult him on account of her eyes, complaining that their power of vision had of late considerably diminished. At a glance the doctor saw that she was a lady of rank and wealth. He looked at her eyes, shook his head and thought the treatment would require much time, as there were reason to fear amaurosis in her case. He must advise her first of all that, as she had informed him she was residing at a considerable distance in the country, she must remove into the city at once, and thus enable him to see her frequently, if possible, daily.

The lady tenanted an elegant mansion in the city, and the physician was punctual in his attendance. He prescribed this and that, and thus days run into weeks and weeks into months. The cure, however, was still coming. The physician tried to console her.

One day the patient hit upon a curious scheme, and she waited not long to carry it into effect.

She procured for herself a very old and poor attire, put a hood of tremendous size upon her head, took an old umbrella and a market basket in her hand, and in these habiliments she visited the physician, selecting for the purpose a very rainy day. She had succeeded in distorting and disguising herself so well, that the eye even of a lover could scarcely have recognized her. She was obliged to wait for a long time in the ante room of the physician, with many others, who like her were seeking relief. At last her turn came.

"Well, my good woman, what have you got to complain of?"

"Very bad eyes doctor," she answered.

He took her to the light, looked into her eyes but failed to recognize his patient. Shrugging his shoulders, he said

"Your eyes are well enough."

"Well?" she said.

"Yes; I know what I am saying."

"But I have been told that I was getting the a—a—forget how it is called."

"Amaurosis?"

"Yes, that is it doctor."

"Don't you let them make you believe any such nonsense. Your eyes are a little weak, but that is all. Your physician is an ass!"

"An ?"

"Yes an ass! Tell him boldly that I said so."

The lady now arose, and in her customary voice, said: "Sir, your are my physician, don't you know me?"

The face of the sage counsellor made it easier to imagine than to describe.

"Gracious madam!" He commenced to stammer an apology, but the lady would not listen to him, and left him indignantly. She never saw the gentleman any more.

DOES NOT ADMIRE HIM.—The Louisville Courier (Democrat) says that the country has been given a very exaggerated idea of Grant's military capacity; that his genius is really of an inferior order, and that his achievements during the war were those of a lucky blunderer rather than that of a great Captain.

The Louisville Courier is edited by Gen. Buckner—Simon Bolivar Buckner who having been denied the privilege of enforcing Democratic ideas with the sword, follows the example of his colleagues, Forrest, of Fort Pillow, and Quantrell, of Lawrence, in emphasizing them with the pen. If Simon's pen is not "mightier" than his sword, it must be a very worthless weapon.

A [illegible] for Simon's opinion of Grant may be found in a bit of history. Simon had command of a certain rebel work known as Fort Donelson. Grant invested and held it completely. Simon wanted to go home. Grant wouldn't let him. Simon asked upon what terms he might get out of the box. Grant told him that the terms were "unconditional surrender." Simon declared that as a Southern [illegible] and a chevalier he could not consent to that. Grant then wrote: "I propose to move immediately upon your works." Simon read the letter, and, like Captain Scott's coon, [illegible] down. But the incident led him to [illegible] a poor opinion of Grant. We saw [illegible] when he [illegible] through Albany on his way to Boston harbor, and we concluded [illegible] he had no admiration for Grant. He [illegible] found at the Democratic [illegible] with him; and for the [illegible] —Albany Journal.

WOMEN AS WOOD ENGRAVERS.—Here is a solution of a [illegible] people very much. We [illegible] an illustration helping to a [illegible]. It is by the "Old Bachelor" of Harper's B[illegible], who manages to say a good many very [illegible] things in a very quiet, unaffected way. [illegible]:

"It seems to me that women might especially succeed as wood engravers, so I went to one of the most experienced engravers in the city and consulted with him.

"Don't you see the difficulty?" he asked, with [illegible] and interest.

"No," said I, "you must instruct me."

"Well," answered he, "I have employed women [illegible], and I wish I could feel more encouraged. But the truth is, that when a young man comes to me and brings his work he feels that it is his life's business how to cut his future out of the little blocks before him. Wife, family, home, happiness, are all to be carved by his hands, and he [illegible] steadily and earnestly to his labor, determined to master it, and with every incitement spurring him on. He cannot marry until he knows the trade. It is exactly the other way with the girl. She may be as poor as the youth, and wholly dependent upon her labor for her living. But she feels that she will probably be married by-and-by, and then she must give up wood engraving. So she goes on listlessly; she has no ambition to [illegible]; she does not feel that her happiness [illegible]. She will marry, and then [illegible] wages will support her. She may [illegible]," said the engraver, "but she thinks so, and [illegible] her work."

The [illegible], who recently had an interview with Thiers, says that the study of the little historian orator is a sight worth a trip to Paris. Princes might envy him for it. The literary and artistic treasures which it contains are appraised at five hundred thousand francs. Thiers never wrote a line of all the books he composed, but dictated them to his amanuensis Goshen. He never sits still when he dictates, but paces the room, speaking as if he was addressing the Senate, and gesticulating very earnestly. A rather singular sight in the magnificent room, is the railroad ticket which the French police handed to him in December, 1861, when he was driven out of France. He always gets highly excited when he speaks of the treatment he had to undergo at that time. The ticket is handsomely framed, and hangs over the bureau where he writes his letters. His income is nearly three hundred thousand francs a year; he lives very temperately, and thinks he will live a good many years yet. Although he is seventy-one years old, there is still a wonderful amount of work in him. He rises at six, dictates for three hours, takes a light breakfast, and continues working until one. His evenings are devoted to his friends and acquaintances.

The Providence Journal says: "It will be one of the mysteries of history if, after all that has happened, this nation deliberately disowns Grant and adopts Seymour as the representative of its opinion and the leader of its policy. Where will be the glory of Appomattox Court House? Did Lee and rebeldom succumb there to Horatio Seymour and his principles? Would there have been any surrender, would there not be a Confederacy still, or a bargain which would be worse than its continued existence, if in 1864 this people had followed the lead of Horatio Seymour? When this nation repents of the war, and is ashamed of its glories, and wishes to turn back its legitimate results—when it wishes to reopen civil war and restore the breath of life to rebels and encourage revolution, it will give its highest offices to Horatio Seymour and Frank Blair."

DON'T BE A LOBSTER.—Your lobster, set high and dry among the rocks, has not sense and energy enough to work his way back to the sea, but waits for the sea to come to him. If it does not come, he remains where he is, and dies, although the slightest exercise would enable him to reach the waves, which are perhaps tossing and tumbling within a yard of him. There is a tide in human affairs that casts men into "tight places," and leaves them there, like stranded lobsters. If they choose to lie where the breakers have flung them, expecting some grand billow to take them on its big shoulders and carry them in to smooth water, the chances are that their hopes will never be realized. Nor is it right they should be. The social element ought not to be expected to help him who makes no effort whatever to help himself.

An Arkansas editor, not distinguished for his loyalty, thus rejoices over his admission into the Union: "Well, we are in the Union. We are trooly loyal once more. Light is breaking. The sun of prosperity is shining, and we'll soon be happy. John Brown's soul is promenading rapidly. Pray on, brothers. Let us chant 'hel-e-lu-jah to the Onion.' We are happy. We are in ecstacy. We feel strong again, because we are United. We gaze upon the old flag again with rapture, and affectionately take the thieving radicals by the hand, fold them to our bosom, and forgive them—Never!"

WHEN you are depressed by the gaunt, sickly feeling of a disordered system, which needs to be cleansed and stimulated into healthy action, take a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS and see how you can be restored for a shilling.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

PORTLAND, Og'n, July 28, 1868.

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus, I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim. Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease, and lay insensible for four hours, when Dr. Jim was called, and in 20 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and asleep. I believe that there is no other doctor on the Pacific coast that could have relieved me as quick as Dr. Jim did.

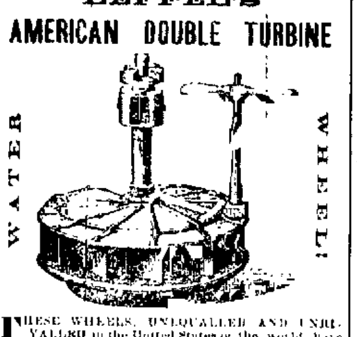
LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and sale hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel, does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use these two tiers of buckets, whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours, DODGE & MUNN."

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.
A. MYERS.

H. W. SHIPLEY'S PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern:—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him.

I would be glad to get a decision of the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinion of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.

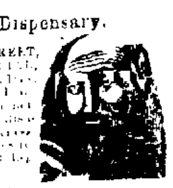
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin diseases of years standing and ulcerated legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of youths, both male and female, are there who are suffering under a terrible existence from the effects of diseases contracted, or from a virus absorbed into the system, [illegible] a pallid, emaciated and languid [illegible], disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. [illegible] sands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible soul-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private [illegible] for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sham certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, Intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1864. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

DR. J. C. YOUNG'S

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

* CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.*

* CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.*

* IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.*

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in [illegible] and which have done so much to secure the reputation of the Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of a cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so much importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and honor give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in need, to the invariable success which has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so [illegible] ject as the decay of manly vigor through [illegible] vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] tive; but the desire to point out to the [illegible] guish and decay, the true cause of their [illegible] great an incentive to be forced into abey[ance] [illegible] tended the terrible disease of Seminal W[eakness] [illegible] one but the practical specialist who devotes his [illegible] treatment can tell; but its presence can be [illegible] the most inexperienced by noting the [illegible] toms; Weakness of the back and [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power; nerv[ous] [illegible] cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot [illegible] of consumption; short breath; flushings of the [illegible] sion to society; confusion of the mind; [illegible] nightly emissions; colorless; slight discha[rge] [illegible] least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the [illegible] regular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of [these] symptoms enumerated above, pause to con[sider]. [The] present is the golden moment in which you [may save your] health and happiness. You may feel strong [illegible] you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse [illegible] SLIGHTEST DEGREE, you have the seeds of wea[kness in your] system, and their undermining influence [will sooner] or later, dash the fair edifice of your [illegible] ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being [illegible] disease that declares itself at once.
